THE DAILY DEBEL

CHATTANOOGA SUNDAY MORNING, NOV. 23, 1862.

THE SITUATION.

great battle is expected."

long run.

Chances however, tare still, we think, that no great battle will be fought near Freddrives them into winter quarters.

increased, with every preparation going on for a grand naval demonstration against Mobile, Charleston and Savannale.

The orders of President Davis to Gen. Holmes, commanding the Department of the extreme West, will be endorsed by every take a tardy step in the right diretion. If our citizens are permitted to be murdered with impunity it is quite certain that there will be pleaty of Yankee assassins willing and ready to take advantage of our wanton apathy.

Imprepse subjustence is being collected in Middle Tennessee for our soldiers, the farmlies during the winter.

ago. Gen. Morgan occupied his former cav. and bal whiskey. alry position. Gen. Porrest has a brief furlough, his health requiring some rest and something of a spirit rapper. He knocked the We odnit comment, and pass on to the next his mind some relaxation from a long, labor head out of a barrel of whiskey yesterday, and point. Here is the essence of an epic: rious campaign. Gens. Cheatham and to our personal knowledge has been tapping "Nushelle is not what it was, leftere me. You ro, and will be heard from in case of a martid.

Discontent and taxes, we observed on with an extentations but uncredited display, und dark; no lights at night, nor maste, nor notes of iment, as Sparts. All failing to vesterday, are the elements of faction and which comes in bad grace from a journal, handler: Why, I havn't smiled in a month. When will be published as deserters. foud, and possibly of civil war and com- which has habitually refused us the com- ever the strings of my heart vibrate, the face is no. bustion, which the Northern people will be mon, courteous conventionality of an ex. wrenthed with dimples the eyes are full of tears." brought to encounter after their foreign cru- charge sade is ended. Its victims will awake to to the deception practiced upon them, and the sacrifices exacted to gratify the pride of power, and conceal the disgrace of wilful error, ignorance, and despotic last. Its deladed followers, who have escaped with life, but with life only, will return to their once happy homes to murmur a thousand idle " might have beens." The opposition to permanent Chairman, and Reb. Mr. Mitchell, upon as "like marigolds with the sun's eye," to the war in the beginning will flud ready of Ala, permanent Secretary. The elevical glorify our life by its present contrast. Meanlisteners among the multitude, whose delegates from Alabama were Revs. Messes while it is noble to see these martyrs of faith listeners among the multitude, whose delegates from Alabama were Revs. Messes while it is noble to see these martyrs of faith. I tast, to turnish Wood, Coul and Straw, (or either wrongs they will not fail to describe forci- Hauson, Mitchell and Pierce. The first and clinging with the devotion of womanhoo to trict during the coming winter. R. D. GRIBBLE. first tide of fanaticism which swept the council country. To what extent the retribution may go, no one enu predict.

The character of the people of the North is far more revolutionary than that of the added to Wombwell's (now Edmond's) melike precious odors, more precious when they people of the South. There is always a pagerie, in England. It was imported from are crushed; for prosperity doth best discover made by Dolland, of London, and has the name of the wice; but adversity doth best discover virging andersigned cut upon it. The finder wife. kee mind there is none. They have run wild lupon every ism which ever arose, and have anything, except the mechanics and manu-sels is often assigned to such officers. factures. They burnt witches, they worshipped idols in the shape of villainous antislavery bibles and anti-slavery gods, and Inquirer of Thursday last says :

provided the right person is put to turn the crank. Whilst the South turned the crank Captain and the daughters just mentioned, are of the government it moved on pretty well. But without that ruling hand, firm, intelli-the cogs have ceased to operate, and the Office on Market Se- nearly opposite the Post Office. structure has fallen to pieces. There is no use trying to mend it. The material does not exist. You can not make a moon out of green cheese, and you can not frame a republic out of yanked plank.

and the persistent efforts of Burnside may tain period of life, and agreeably at all addressed to myself, from a young lady of exsame time, little credit is to be paid the in both these as if they were maxims, and like a heroine, as she is. I am not perfectly sensation despatches, which, whenever at a are also of the opinion that our people are centain that she intended her jottings to find of Greely, the clamor of the Democrats, and precintion of the serious realities we are mit an enthusiasm) and more of her letter. the personal ambition of the man bimself, are daily enacting, and the sad bereavements. I give her exordinm. See how she dashes inall calculated to lead him on hastily, perhaps we are almost hourly called to deplore, there to her subject, with a bold impermosity, worrashly and certainly with great desperation, is mother duty which bids us cultivate a thy of Die Vernon berself:-It is possible in this event that accident and hopeful and buoyant spirit, that we may "Oh the hewildering Yankees! Behold them, my a sort of good luck which seems to favor the be able to resist the sorrows as they come friend, behold them in their dirty bine coats and nither hold and inconsiderate in war may give him a upon us. It gives us pleasure, therefore, to made in honor of the color of th fears of such a General as Burnsides getting the playshouse is open and attended. In and all that in them is, belonged to them. In every mear Moore's Inlet, on the Sound, and a brig the advantage of such a one as Lee in the Richmond, Mobile and Atlanta, theatries corner, up and down every avenue and alley, from ashore near Fort Figher. spectpeles are announced nightly, repre- but tramp! tramp! and Yank! Yank! Yank!" senting events of the day, "holding the Desperate disagreeable, that. I have heard morning on the reef at New Inlet and we reericksburg; and that the two armies will crow honest emulation, and reflecting "the age the aversion would come at last to "blue range of the blockaders. Only two of the at each other, until the great weather cock and body of the times" in a way which can coals." But to speak truth, there is good and brought off by Midshupman Moses, and picked a On the coast the blockading squadrens are outlet to the imagination. It may be that the instance of its present object. Nor is its hat an endered, will be sent down to try tions of the times, these attempted embodie a bit of it. Listenments of the spirit of the age, are but in- "Don't think I am violent don't think it. (Well. The schooner was burned by a boat's crew different at best. It is more than probable by argument and compliance sake I was a fairfeen men sent for that purpose from one that the secons are but cock-loft ranters, and nothing to netty --- and C--- ! You of the blockaders. The boat's crew was capthe acting "most villainous." No matter the meeting all to ourselver; we shot the windows his cavalry, to whom information had been a for that. It serves the purpose; it distracts fight, drew to curtain and blinds fast; then we given by the crew of the schooner who estrue man, as wholesome and essential. They the mind for a little; it affords something stopped our ears with cotton to keep out the sounds exped. - Wilmington Journal. which is hot loaded with the trappings of and then we had a real pow-wow, as you call them .wat, nor decked with the plumes of the Oh, she was terrible! She exhorted as at such a rate hearse and house of mourning; it amuses and we got so excited, that father had to one up and the soldier. The squeak of the violins, the nate occurrence I would give you a full report of the slare of the gas lights, and the tinkle of the proceedings." From Middle Tennessee, up to the hour of stage bell, at least remind one of old times, Ve closing this column, we have no news which and are good for their suggestiveness, think I see him now, -stern parient, all frowns Chattan indicates an onward movement of either During the Crimoan war it was a wise policy and grazzly beard. I cannot find it in my party. Rousseau is in command at Nashville, which concernged a strolling company hours to abuse him however. Good man, bill to this office. As he is both raind and unwincipled, he is among the troops. Anything, everything there's your good health, my contrable friend. to supply the animal life, which war and he sure you take good care of those girls. We the fatigues and anxieties of war so matu- set a value by con down in Dixie. But not for it from to a sacks to seit purchasers. Sale peak rally dearten. "Two things," says Cicero, digress too far, My young friend with the (De Oratore - which inspire men more foregoing facts, sohers considerably in her ers uniting with the military with a cor- than all others music and declamation," tone, and comes flows to some quiet facts. balings and heat, which insure ample sup- The theatre gives us both in a style at once. You have beard much of G.v. Ne 18 Brown. There novel, pictures up and instructive; an is no man in Nashwille who taments the course he mongh. We will have all men exempt from military novel, pictures up and instructive; an look so much as he dies himself. He is still under duty who will apply at once. Liberal wages and General Beckner, we are told by the evening's occupation; an hour's table talk; arrest; aboved and insulted by the Yankees, who hate hearding will be paid. Muriceesboro Banner has gone to the front something to look to beyond the beaten him worse than they do the accessionests. I do not Gen. Bragg was in Tulialionia a day or two track of war and the stale pursuit of cards think that he is as much to blame as some people, and for Provost Marshall Peden, seems to be more than I do, as well as what is best Secott in reply to Old Buck.

General Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Confederate States assembled in Augusta, Ga., last Wednesday, The Rev. Dr. Henckell, of S. C., was manimously elected which will one day glimmer and then burst a bly. The reaction will be fiereer than the second days were | coupied in organizing the the truth of principle and the trust in God.

> and only thirty inches high- a perfect Tom capitol of Temessee. Bacon has said, what Thumb of the elephant tribe, has just been may be said of them "goodness and virtue are never exhibited practical good sense about Yunkee navy, and tanks after masters and be-ent of mine is like some very gallant friends fore midshipmen. The command of small ves- masculine I know of she cannot keep her Signed until 12 o'clock, M., on the 21th inst., to they have followed the delusions of all follies. It will be a matter of surprise to many of our young ladies have gone, like the last Sin: You will please return the horse I left with from spiritualism to the invasion of the our readers to know that Captain Semmes, of roses of summer. But still many are yet here. They, you at Sparts, if convenient, or let me know where it without an exception, detest everything that ever can get him. South. What more natural than their self- a daughter receiving her education in this looked like a Yankee. Some reports got out, I hear, destruction, when they find that they can country. She is the youngest daughter of the looked like a Yankee. Some reports got out, I hear, about one or two having received the Pederal officers.

The Yankee is an excellent machine, father. Two elder daughters, Kate and Elec who are now few and far between. These latter we systematically cut. One of them was lately married to a Tomostope Pederal officers.

ON DITH OF THE DAY

ago, the editor of the Rebel gave some extracts from the letter of a citizen of Nashville. ing to things therein, after the arrival Players are "the abstract and brief chron- Cook with reinforcements, which notable ex icles of the times," says Shakespeare, and transpired on the evening of the 5th inst. By The denfonstrations against Fredericks- "the stage is one great source of public means of this grape-vine, I am enabled to add burg, which began in jest, seem to be end- amusement," adds Hazlitt, " not to say in- another, and a racier epistle to that testimoing in something like carnest. Our des- struction; a good play, well acted, passing nind, which gives a vivid glimpse into the cap. ter, and it could doubtless say, with the ghost fiscated and turned over to the Post Surgeon or Medi patches announce Gen. Lee is that quarter away a whale evening delightfully, at a cer- ito of Tennessee. I have before me a letter, and the persistent efforts of Burnside may tain period of life, and agreeably at an collect good sense, exquisite appreciation and bridg on a general engagement. At the times " We are one of those who believe intense disgust for the Yankees. She writes loss for other tidings, announce that "a by no means bound to forget those things their way into print; but girls who twist which relax the mind and soothe the grape-vires must not expect the grapes they friend." I write for the amusement and inforheart in times of peace, because the coun- scatter to fall ungathered; moreover this young mation of the readers of the Rebel, and would I There is no doubt that the pressure upon try is in a state of war. For, whilst a he girl is both amiable and forgiving as I have Burnsides is very great. The ranting fustion coming sobriety should mark our just ap tested many and many a time. But less of the cpitome of the heroisms of our daily life an among the hules, and always thought as now, to reach the shore. The brig lies out of the north and reflecting "the age the aversion would come at last to "blue mange of the blockaders. Only two of the state of the age the aversion would come at last to "blue mange of the blockaders. Only two of the state of the age to learn that Captain Gardner, his mate to No. of a rea, location, &c. Comment as to the character of the lands, and uttimate value of the investment is unnecessary. Address the at Chattaneous to reach the shore. The brig lies out of the grant that Captain Gardner, his mate to No. of a rea, location, &c. Comment as to the character of the lands, and uttimate value of the investment is unnecessary. Address the at Chattaneous to reach the shore. The brig lies out of the grant that Captain Gardner, his mate to No. of a rea, location, &c. Comment as to the character of the lands, and uttimate value of the investment is unnecessary. Address the at Chattaneous the character of the lands, and uttimate value of the investment is unnecessary. Address the at Chattaneous the character of the lands and uttimate value of the lands are character of the lands and uttimate value of the lands are character of the lands are characte and body of the times" in a way which can not fail to relieve the heart by giving an outlet to the imagination. It may be that these imitations of humanity, these reflect confined to my fair correspondent alone. Not and see at all events I know he is for the South. I think be would be in a Yapkee prison to-day, if it were not for Mr. John Trimble. But, I suppose, you all know

Breekenridge are not for from Murfreesho, others ever since he assumed provost nom may walk a whole morning and never meet a familiar face. The ladies never go in the streets except ac-Best. Wil notice bely unit their in the flich my of then are in black! How many bouses are in Nov. 19th, 1861. All officers and soldiers of Howmond Enquirer, cor ain paragraphs which appropriate You do not know, you cannot know the artis cavalry who are absent on sick leave, or otherwise, who are able to report to the command, price will be paid. For further information, apply at Discontest and taxes, we observed on without ostentations but uncredited display, hannes, which used to be so tirely, are now deserted must report immediately to Headquarters of the reg. This office

Ah, yes, the old story again. A letter, a Confederacy copy one week and send bill to the black scal, a pale woman; a kneeling form; office, The reply of Old Buck to Gen. Scott's a low sob; and a blinding flood of salt, salt about as midiculous an effusion as that of Gen. tears. That is not only war, but life, and has Fuon the premies of Col. Wm. Lowry, one miles and Judith topurped F West of Charleston, Tenn., a Bay Horse. 15 CONFEDERATE EPISCOPAL COUNCIL .- The first in Nashville. But the worst evils of earth was God knows it could not be much worse than must ced; and indeed for them and for us all,

Deeply buried from human eyes, No purer or more courageous heroines ever lived, than these same self-sacrificing matrons A large quantity of first-rate A dwarf elephant, twenty years old and daughters of the melancholly, the blasted nov20-1w

Acting Engign is a new grade in the I resume my quotations. This correspondmind off the girls of Nashville. And why cording to plans and specifications on file in my of should she faith? Echo answers she is one of ties CAPT. RAPHART. SEMNES. The Philadelphia 'em herself," Blow the trumpels! Here is a whole arm full. Estres!

rent and homest, the screws have come loose, BY GRAPE-VINE AND OTHERWISE, and have collapsed into a magnificent indifference, which is as amusing as acceptable."

Thus (omitting its more personal and private letails) ends this letter. Row it reached my hands is very well known to myself, but to a In his "Situation" article of a day or two you, my gentle reader, must remain a profound, fathomable mystery. It doubtless had its langers to encounter; "disasterons chances by flood and field" did indeed assail it, until the original white envelope grew to be as tawny as the skin of Othello, In a word, its' advenares, huir breadth 'scapes, but safe arrival liere at hist, were of the most exciting characot the murdered Dane.

-- But that I am forbid To will the secrets of my prison house, I could a tale unfahl, whose fightest word

Would harrow up thy soul." Courteous reader I restrain the direful story. I have no wilful malice against any one. I have even the weak desire to be "everybody's not harm a hair upon the head of man or woman of them; and if I should ever so far offend them as to commit the grievous sin of being dull, a crime we scribbiers are oftenest milty of.) I beg them to believe that, like a learned and witty friend of mine, I have a de-

John Frazier & Co. She grounded yesterday the vessel and cargo. The weather imfavorable yesterday, and the

New Advertisements.

SALT! SALT! SALT! Will, sell on the 4th day of December, at Chatta-

100 Hands Wanted

MMEDIATELY, to work in Pork House in Chatta, S. R. McCAMY & Co. ar All Atlanta daily papers copy one month and QUEARTERNANTER'S DETARTMENT. Chattanooga, Nor. 21st, 1802. Senied proposals will be received until 1st Deber for the building of an Ordnance Warehouse in Challanooga. Said warehouse to be 100 feet long. 30 feet wide and 12 feet high. For further particulars apply to Capt. A. D. Humpbries, Ordnance officer. every possible facility will be given by the Quarter iment, at Sparts. All failing to comply with the above,

Col. Commanding.

hands high, tour white feet and blaze face, having also conspicuous saddle-marks. Sabi horse when last sees was on the Old Federal road, Bradley county. A reward of filty dollars ($50) will be paid for the apprehension and return of said horse to the place from the blace he occaped.

W. O. BILLAOUK, en. Atlanta Confederacy please copy and send bil

(under the Habel Office.)

vice; but adversity doth best discover virrewarded by leaving it at the Passport Office.
T. L. Sheffield.

Alisonia, Nov. 16-1s* E. B. BREEDLOVE, Maj. 45th Ala. Reg't., Walker's Brig., Anderson's Der.

WANTED ... A DISTILLER.

By order of Brig. Gen. Helm, commanding Post GHAS, W. PEDEN. ov16-1m Eapt, & Prerost Marshal.

CIGARS! MNF BEAUREGARD CHIARS for sale (manufac tured at Hermit Springs, near Dalton, Ga.) by sovid FITE: ERALD & BRO.

AUCTION STORE.

WILL SELL for anybody

ANYTHING THAT THEY WANT SOLE.

FOR SALE

A Chance for Speculators! 100,000 ACRES LAND FOR SALE

FOR CONFEDERATE MONEY!

LAND FOR SALE

THE TRACT OF LAND lying on the wa-ters of Mulberry Creek in Lincoln com-Tennessee, known as the Dr. Smith place, entaining 440 ACRES, about 200 acres of

There is a large Distillery and Horse Rill on said

Said land is finely suited for a stock tarm, and his a spring of never-falling water.

For terms apply to the sales rilier at Fayetteville.

JAMES 8. BRIGHT. Valuable Tract of Land For Sale-

WiSH to sell my tract or hand tying near the town of Stevenson in Jackson County Alabama. Said tract contains about 540 acres, 270 of which are clear 300 HANDS WANTED and in cultivation—land rich, fring between Crow and Benge's Creeks. Good brick dwelling house, and all necessary out houses, vizi kitchen, negro to of exemption given to all nen who work Confederate money in payment. For further parties, Apply to the superintendent of any care

> NEGRUES FOR SALE. SEVEN or eight LIKELY NEUROES for sale.

VALUABLE HOME FOR SALE,

7 ITH all the accessary conven-A. TEMPLETON.

WANTED

RAGS! RAGS! RAGS!

NEGRUES WANTED WE wish to hire 15 or 20 negro men to cut wood in Dude county, Uso. We will pay good wages. Persons having negroes to hise will address as at Trenton, Geo. Permanent employment.

oct28-1m*
M. B. McHahlan & Co.

sor Knoxville Register and Atlanta Confederacy copy and send bill to Knoxville.

SUBSTITUTE WANTED.

LOST-FOUND, &c.

Ringgold, Ga., Nov. 4-1m TAKEN UP

A ND put in Jail in Chattanooga, Hamilton county.

A East Tennessee, to the 3d day of October, 1962, a NEGHO MAN by the name of JOHN, who mays be belongs to Wm. Jones, of Memphis, Tenn. Maid boy them with the Clerk of the black, 5 feet 2g inches high, 20 years old.

J. H. SWAIM. Jeffer. by law or they will be bures. FIFTY DULLARS REWARD

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RUNAWAY

MILITARY ADVERTISEMEN

gre in this place, where sup-been made for the soldier and one and oll! Do not suff JAGK JONES, Captain.

ewal. This call must be obeyed.

Last JOHN J. LOWRY.

Enrolling officer, 14th dist., Hamilion on.

Instructions to Enrolling Office

head of "Remarks."

Conscripts will remain in their respective counties entil called for by me.

When the call is made the Chalcman will superintend the Euroliting officers, and they will see that all persons embraced in the call obey it. Immediately, after the day appointed for assembling the conscripts, the Eurolling officers are required to arrest each man, of conscript age, who may be found in their districts without a certificate of excaption. They may call upon the Sheriff and Constables to add them, and if other a usistance be necessary, they will report the fact to me, and troops will be furnished.

Extrolling officers remain in their Districts, and their district do intend with the first circulment. They are required to 'watch the District and to make a critic preparts. They will be held to a strict accommability for the truth of their reports, and whoever of them willfully falls promptly to arrest or report persons of conscript age as directed shows, will homeil be dealt with. The Confederate Lovernment gives them simple compensation, and the work must be done there oughly. Chairmen of the county Courts are charged with the general superintendence of the enrollment in their consider.

JNO. L. HOPKINS. A. D. U.

eith the general superintendence of the enrolling site conscient. JNO. 1. HOPKINS, A. H. U. Oct. 14, 1882. and Supt. of Eurolling of Eq. East Tennessee papers copy.

VOLUNTEERS.

BEING fully authorized to raise and muster into the service of the Confederate States a regiment suffering for the war, all depthins having communic organized can have them imported into the service a writing me at Winchester, or telegraphing me at the OFFICE OF SESSIFIANT QUARTERNAM of the beeves killed for the army, for tanning, and the purchase of Leather for manafacturing. Tanners bus-ing leather on hand and wanting hides will do well to oldress me with proper reservaces. The army motion should not be the duty of all patrictle tanners which in so doing. All leather held at unressand prices will be impressed. F. W. Dill. A. Mill.

Chartana astra's far't. }
Chartanaoga, Get. Zist, 1862. }
Certified accounts of H. G. Ronks, Capt. and Quermaster, will be paul at the office of a. P. JONES.

Maj. & Quarterman CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS.

AM authorized to a crease my command to two certainty to volunteer. By tempony amphers over me handred, and an suon we emough join he to form a ew company, it will be organized, by the new rem-in Col. 1. W. Avery's Erg't tien, than

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

WILL attend at the Market-House in Chattannoga on the 28th and 29th days of this mouth for the purpose of culticing the State and County fax for the year 1861. This is the last appointment, and those who neglect to pay may expect a key. I will be at the decemby Court to receive the taxes of all who have the tensionally half.

WILL buy all the old Linnen and Cotton Rags, old pieces of rope, gramy sacks, pieces of tents, and all the old frags you can bring to me in the next three houths, for which I will pay CASH.

Wash the dirt out and bring them in; rake up all the scraps and come and get your money for what you have thrown away.

I want them delivered at my old stand, on the corner, next door to O. H. P. Wayne st or at the stare of Bisplenhoff & Birkmiller, or at Harmson, Tenn, to A. P. Hunter.

JAN IS, EDWARDS.

P. Hunter.

JAN IS, EDWARDS.

Deepk, seven miles above Treaton, containing the legal hours of pieces, seven miles above Treaton, containing the legal hours of the country of the legal hours of an the less Torontay in January to at the highest on which Benj. Earle, dee'd, treed, lying on Line Deepk, seven miles above Treaton, containing the legal hours of the country of the country of the legal hours of an the less Torontay in January to at the line to which Benj. Earle, dee'd, treed, lying on Line Deepk, seven miles above Treaton, containing the light the country of the country of Nov 11, 1802.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE This 15th day of Dember, 1862. WE. R. HANKIN, Adm'r.

THE STATE OF TENNESSEE,

A. J. GOODWAN.